Keeping Your Audience Engaged From Start to Finish

Whether you book Ben as your awards host, after-dinner entertainer or both, every moment is designed to keep guests engaged and make your job effortless.

Professional hosting, audience interaction and world-class magic combine to create an evening your guests will remember long after the final applause.

Awards Host

Many clients think they need a comedian, but what they actually want is someone who can make the room laugh, keep the energy up, and bring the whole night together – without ever crossing the line.

That's exactly what Ben delivers – blending sharp humour, world-class magic, and years of experience to create an event that's effortless for organisers and unforgettable for guests.

After Dinner Entertainer

Booking the right after-dinner entertainment is difficult. Clients want someone who can engage the entire room, make people laugh, and leave guests talking about the evening long after it's finished.

Ben's act is...Hilarious. Interactive. Inoffensive.

Combining world-class mind reading, audience interaction and razor-sharp comedy, every performance is fast-paced, funny and completely interactive.

Your guests don't just watch the show - they become part of it.

Why Clients book Ben
